

Case - Timothy N. Pfeiffer,
Subject - Homicide, New Brunswick, N.J.,
Operative - 312.

312/Bradley

is handled right he will break down and tell all. Mr. Bradley informed Operative that Mills is under a great strain now, and has been since the crime took place. Operative asked Mr. Bradley why the Officials did not do something about it, Mr. Bradley replied, "Well don't say I told you, but I heard some of the Officials say they are waiting to give the man a chance to shoot himself. Operative asked Mr. Bradley what man they were waiting to have shoot himself. Mr. Bradley replied, "Why, Mills." Mr. Bradley then went on to say, "You know Schneider is a foxy fellow, he is supposed to be a little bit off. You know it is just like him to see something and keep it. I honestly believe that Schneider saw the bodies there that night, because he was always up around that place. People believe Schneider is better off in jail because if he was out he very likely would say things and cause a lot of trouble."

Operative further remarked to Mr. Bradley, "Do you think that Mr. Mills is the one?" Mr. Bradley replied, "Well, they all seem to think so, and they are giving him a chance to do away with himself."

At about 2.30 p.m. Operative left Mr. Bradley and proceeded to the railroad station. While at the railroad station, Operative observed several reporters in conversation, and overheard one of them remark, "Well, I was up here and interviewed her, and she told me that she could almost swear that it was a Ford Sedan; I explained to her what a Ford Sedan was like, and she said, 'Yes, that was just the kind of a car it was.'

There was a woman amongst the above mentioned reporters who was overheard to remark, "I would sooner think that Mills, himself, did the job than I would that Mrs. Hall had done it, because I understand that Mills fights with his daughter - I have learned from some people that he has said to her, 'You are following in your mother's footsteps, and are going to be a bum just